

[illegible]

- REPORT OF THE
- COMMISSIONER OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE
- FOR THE YEAR ENDING 1890.
- PUBLISHED BY THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE,
- LONDON: 1891.

and

means for making a settlement which allows an information communication service provider who receives insurance money to be paid to said customer by said informed insurer to counterbalance an information communication service charge imposed by said customer with said insurance money.

4. The management system according to claim 3, wherein said compensation criteria are so set as to exclude as a matter for compensating a problem when said problem duration time does not reach a given exemption value.

5. The management system according to claim 3, wherein said compensation criteria are so set as to reduce an information communications network system charge corresponding to said problem duration time when said problem duration time exceeds a given exemption value.

6. The management system according to claim 3, wherein said compensation criteria are set in such a way as to compensate for said problem even when said problem occurs due to a cause for which said information communication service provider is not responsible.

7. The management system according to claim 3, wherein said compensation criteria are set in such a way as to compensate for damages in a case where a cause for said problem has defamed, or invaded the privacy of, a customer or a third party, or has resulted in damage to equipment, and erasure or alteration of information.

000340.000701
T02000"04T9E000

a step of making a settlement which allows an information communication service provider who receives insurance money to be paid to said customer by said informed insurer to counterbalance an information communication service charge imposed by said customer with said insurance money.